1. VOLCANO MOMBACHO HIKE & CANOPY

Reserva Natural Volcán Mombacho is located 11km from the colonial city of Granada. It is an extraordinary 5-crater volcano with a cloud forest that possesses a wide variety of flora and fauna with unique and endangered species, as well as impressive scenic views. Take the trail to the top and don't forget to ask your guide about the Mombacho Salamander, a species which can only be found at Mombacho.

The tour leaves in Mombotour 4x4 pickup trucks with professional guides who will assist you in getting to know more about this unique place.

You may choose between a variety of trails with varying levels of difficulty. After you've hiked the trail you will begin the zip line. Before you start flying through the rainforest canopy, the guides will show you what to do and also explain more exciting tricks, such as the "Superman" and the "upside down". The Canopy Tour is located at "Café Las Flores" plantation where afterwards you can taste and/or buy some organic coffee to bring back home.

2. OMETEPE ISLAND DAY TRIP

Ometepe Island was formed by two volcanoes rising up from Lake Nicaragua, also known by the Spanish conquerors as “The fresh water ocean” due to its size. Ometepe offers you a chance to step back in time and visit a jungle island paradise. You arrive on the island by ferry; make sure to have your camera ready for some beautiful shots of the volcanoes.

There are two options for the full day tour.

1) El Ceibo Museum and Finca Magdalena

This tour begins with a visit to El Ceibo Museum where you can explore the ancient history and ceramic artwork of the pre-Colombian indigenous culture that lived on Ometepe Island. Then a visit to Chico Largo Natural Reserve followed by Lunch at Villa Paraiso and then it's off to a cooperative organic farm, Finca Magdalena, where you can either explore the ancient carvings of the indigenous culture or take a tour to learn about the organic coffee growing process.

2) Volcan Maderas and Cascada San Ramon

This tour takes you to the top of the Volcan Maderas which rises 1394 m above sea level. The hike takes between 6 and 8 hours roundtrip. Once at the top you can take a break to have lunch and swim in the fabulous waterfall San Ramon, water which comes from within the volcano and falls 57 meters to the pool below.

For hiking Maderas, also bring a day pack for lunch

3. GRANADA CITY TOUR & MASAYA VOLCANO

Granada is the oldest city in Nicaragua and features many colorful colonial buildings. This town is full of history; during the colonial era Granada was attacked several times by pirates including the famous Blackbeard.

There is plenty to do and see, from getting a horse carriage ride and touring the city over cobble stone streets, to visiting the historic buildings and churches, going to the cigar factory, or making your own chocolate at the Chocolate Museum.

The Masaya Volcano National Park includes two volcanoes and 5 craters. The volcanoes have erupted several times throughout history, and were feared by both the indigenous people and Spanish conquerors. The Spanish baptized the volcano "La boca del Infierno" or "The mouth of hell". They planted a cross "La Cruz de Bobadilla" on the crater lip in the 16th century in order to exorcise the Devil.

Visitors can peek over the edge of the volcano and look into the impressive crater, which is continuously emitting smoke and sulfur gases. There are several trails that lead to great views, craters, underground tunnels, and a cave.

4. GRANADA CITY TOUR & LAS ISLETAS

Granada is the oldest city in Nicaragua, and one of the oldest in all of Central America, and features many large colonial buildings with classic Spanish architecture. This town is full of history! During colonial times, Granada was attacked several times by pirates, including the famous Blackbeard.

The city was once also the capital of Nicaragua. During your visit you will see some of the oldest buildings in the region, including the The San Francisco and La Merced Churches. You will be able to taste the famous 'vigorón' – a typical dish from Granada that includes yucca, cabbage salad, and pork wrapped in a banana leaf.

From there you will tour Las Isletas in Lake Nicaragua. When Mombacho Volcano erupted thousands of years ago, it threw huge rocks into the Lake Nicaragua. As a result, 365 islands were formed. You will tour the islands by boat and appreciate the immensity of Lake Nicaragua, and its wildlife. Monkeys have been known to join the boat tour from time to time so have your cameras ready!

We can extend your Granada tour into the evening for a taste of nightlife upon request

5. LAGUNA DE APOYO/MASAYA VOLCANO & MARKET

The Laguna de Apoyo is a crater lake, one of the most beautiful natural spots in Nicaragua. It is home to 10% of the country's biodiversity, including 48 mammals. Here we will appreciate the view of the lake, the city of Granada and Lake Nicaragua.

The Masaya Volcanic Park was the first national park in Nicaragua founded by Anastasio Somoza Debayle in 1979. It includes two volcanoes and 5 craters. The volcanoes have erupted several times throughout history, and were feared by both the indigenous people and Spanish conquerors.

Visitors can peek over the edge of the volcano and look into the impressive crater, which is continuously emitting smoke and sulfur gases. There are several trails that lead to other great views, craters, a cave and underground tunnels.

Due to the strength, conservation and expression of its cultural traditions, Masaya is considered the "Cradle of National Folklore". The city was declared the "Cultural Legacy of the Nation" in 1989 and the "Capital of National Folklore" in 2000.

The crafts market is the place to get your Nicaraguan souvenirs. Among the crafts sold are wooden dishes, leather products, local paintings, and vibrant handmade hammocks.

6. MASAYA VOLCANO NIGHT TOUR

The Masaya Volcano National Park includes two volcanoes and 5 craters. The volcanoes have erupted several times throughout history, and were feared by both the indigenous people and Spanish conquerors. The Spanish named the volcano “La Boca del Infierno” or “The Mouth of Hell”. They planted a cross “La Cruz de Bobadilla” on the crater lip in the 16th century in order to exorcise the Devil.

We will begin the nocturnal tour with a visit to La Cruz de Bobadilla, departing right before sunset. You will be able to see the Green Parakeets, which is a bird that has adapted to the sulfur smoke of the volcano and returns to its nest at nighttime. Also you might be able to witness a large number of bats leaving their caves at night.

Equipped with flashlight and helmet you will navigate through an underground tunnel, which was formed by lava streams. This leads to the actual crater mouth, where, depending on the visibility, you may be able to see the red glowing lava.

After the tour, enjoy a hearty Nicaraguan dinner at a local restaurant.

8. SAN JUAN DEL SUR & LA FLOR SEA TURTLE REFUGE

This tour offers guests a unique opportunity to visit one of Nicaragua's most important wildlife sanctuaries, The La Flor Sea Turtle Refuge, located in San Juan del Sur. This is the primary Pacific Coast destination in Nicaragua for nesting sea turtles, due to its protected harbor and a crescent beach, open to the setting sun and protected by El Indio, "The Indian", whose silhouetted face hides in the rocky cliffs on the North end of the bay.

On this tour we enter the wildlife reserve to witness up to one thousand turtles coming to shore to lay around 100 eggs each. It is an overwhelming view available to a selected few for a brief moment of time. We depart from Aqua at 5:30pm and stop in San Juan del Sur for dinner at a seaside restaurant. Afterwards we continue on to an educational stop at a turtle museum where you will receive information about turtle conservation practices before we head off to the refuge. This natural wonder, rare and precious, only occurs late in the evening. Please be prepared to return to your Villa around 2:30am, an unusual hour indeed, but a small price to pay to witness this rare and precious experience.

Prices:

$129/pp (2 people)

$105/pp (For 3-7)

$99/pp (For 8-15)

11. NICARAGUAN FISHING EXPERIENCE

Guests on this fishing trip will have a unique cultural window into the careful blend of adopted modern fishing equipment and techniques with traditional lore and knowledge.

Your local captain and first mate will set your lines and help you troll for fish like: Mahi Mahi, Tuna, Amberjack, King Mackerel and Roosterfish.

Searching for fish on this trip will depend on the 'gut feel' of the captain and his senses to read the birds, waves and conditions.

Lack of modern gear is counterbalanced by local knowledge. Guests will be regaled with local fishing lore, stories and anecdotes. The local "panga" fishing boats have shade covering and are equipped with solid fishing gear and refreshments.

Prices:

$89/pp (2 people)

$69/pp (For 3-7)

12. SPORT FISHING WITH CAPTAIN ROB

Aqua Wellness Resort is pleased to offer a unique fishing experience:

Fish with a crafty pirate raised on a boat in the Bahamas who learned his trade fishing the Caribbean sea off the Florida coast. Captain Rob has fished all over the Nicaraguan Pacific coast and has fished competitively for Yamaha in Florida.

His boat is top notch, custom made here in Nicaragua to his specifications. It is a center console vessel, outboard motor, with a bimini top that accommodates 2 crew and up to six fisherfolk.

The Captain is equipped with GPS and fish finding sonar, has intimate knowledge of fish seasonality, local underwater topography and deep water holes and sea spouts where natural upwelling naturally attracts pelagics. He has a full complement of modern tackle, out riggers, hundreds of lures and fighting belts. His crew is attentive, beer/ soda are cold, and he is always ready with a story.

Capt. Rob is equipped for: Mahi-Mahi fishing, Tuna, Barracuda, Amberjack, Rooster fish runs, deep water catch and release bill fishing, shark fishing by request (also catch and release), as well as night expeditions. A true adventure and unforgettable experience.
